LOVE ALWAYS

[Love] always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. (1 Corinthians 13:7)

These four characteristics of Christian love – protecting, trusting, hoping and persevering in all things – form a golden chain linked together by the love of Christ Jesus. This chain of gold is made to fit every child of God; these characteristics of love ought to adorn every Christian life.

Unbelievers are all too eager to ridicule the Christian way of life. Situations that we find ourselves in may be less than pleasant. And we may be tempted to complain that we are made to deal with too much. But whenever we are so tempted, we need to look to the cross, where Christ suffered quietly and without complaint: “He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth” (Isaiah 53:7).

Remembering how the Lord suffered silently for us, we are moved to wear this golden chain that “always protects.” That is, we will not want to complain about conditions or allow ourselves to be overcome by acts of ingratitude or injustice. Instead, love pro-TECTS itself against such thing by turning to the Lord for help, strength and comfort.

The second link in love’s golden chain reminds us “always [to] trust,” that is, it refuses to yield to suspicions of doubt and instead seeks to take the words and actions of others in the kindest possible way. Sometimes our ears itch to hear the latest gossip, and our sinful hearts yearn to be suspicious and doubtful of others. But that is not the course of love. Love seeks to excuse her enemies and speaks well of them.

The third link in this chain gives us the boldness “always [to] hope.” Is there a problem in our home? Is there a problem in our marriage? Is there a problem disturbing the relationship between parents and children? Is there any problem at all in our life? As Christians, our hope rests in the confidence that God’s power can conquer every situation. Our hope rests in God’s grace conquering and changing the lives of others as we hope for continuing change in ourselves.

The fourth link in this chain of love is the bold patience which “always perseveres.” “We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22). Under heavy trials it is easy to lose courage. But our ability to endure comes with the certainty that “God works all things for the good of those who love him” (Romans 8:28). The patient and forgiving love of Christ is the foundation for our endurance. It makes us willing to never fatigue in serving another’s best interest; it leads us to always be ready to sacrifice our own desires for the sake of another’s welfare; and it leads us to persevere in doing what is right despite the failure to be treated properly.

This golden chain, with these four links of love, is made to order for every Christian. May God enable us to wear it well!

LUTHERAN MOBILE CLINIC (CAMM)

CONGRATULATIONS!! CELEBRATIONS!! "Every good and perfect gift is from above" (James 1:17). This time of year brings many good and perfect gifts (and celebrations) from our gracious God. Graduations, Weddings, Conventions, Father's Day, Vacations---to name just a few. These events bring us the opportunity to gather with family and friends and to thank our God for the(June) special circumstances taking place. Our Lutheran Mobile Clinic staff, Beth and Gary Evans are back in the States for a short visit to celebrate a graduation in their family. Many of us look forward to gathering as fellow believers and mission supporters at the LWMS National Convention later this month in Green Bay, WI. These are all wonderful opportunities to thank our loving God for so many blessings He bestows on us as His children.

As CAMM supporters, we also have blessings which God allows us to share in as we pray for, offer our treasures for and participate in service for our medical clinics in both Malawi and Zambia. Beth Evans, our nurse in charge at the Lutheran Mobile Clinic in Malawi shares news and experiences with us to give us a better perspective what life is like for our fellow believers in Africa.

God's blessings to you this summer as we partake in all the blessed events God gives us in His Love. Thank you for your support, love, prayers and service to CAMM! We could not do this work without all of you. To God be the glory both now and forevermore!

Central Africa Medical Mission Lutheran Mobile Clinic (Malawi) June 2018

My husband Gary and I attend Crown of Life Lutheran Church in Lilongwe, Malawi on the campus of the Lutheran Bible Institute (LBI). Most Sundays we can worship with the full sound and harmony of Malawian hymns from the LBI choir. We hear God's word preached by Pastor Panning or Pastor Chinyanga, and have Bible study after the service. It is good to have this fellowship with the mission families and Malawian church members as we learn from God's word, as it prepares us for the week ahead.

There are aspects of working in a developing country that are frustrating, from the slow traffic to shortages of supplies. Being in a different culture has its challenges with communicating with and relating to people. The basics of being a mobile operation include making sure everything needed to run a clinic is loaded in the ambulance, fully restocked, each day. I know my patience and physical stamina have been tested often.

Then I remember those people we often find lying on the ground outside of the clinic building when we arrive, covered by a chitenje cloth. They are weak, feverish, or coughing. Our staff gets them registered, examined, treated or referred to the hospital. We can make sure the babies are protected with vaccines, and their mothers have nutritious flour to make their porridge if they are underweight. We give them little knit hats in the cold season. We are there to help them, because of people in the US who believe that we should, because Jesus did.

Pastor Chinyanga sends Bible verses by text every day, and one really spoke to me this week. Isaiah 41:13 "For I am the Lord your God who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you." If God is holding our right hand we know that it's not up to us to do it all. We can go through our difficult times without fear because we can count on His constant presence and help. What a comfort to know that His help is also there for those we serve, despite our weaknesses! Many of you are partners in this mission of love through your donations and prayers. Thank you!

Your sister in Christ,

Beth Evans - Nurse in Charge of the Lutheran Mobile Clinic

CHRISTIAN MUSICIAN- CHRIS DRIESBACH - IN THE PARK

Who is Chris Driesbach, you ask? Well, let Chris tell you. "I'm a member of Lamb of God Lutheran Church in Madison, Alabama. Since 2006 I've been on many musical tours, playing concerts at over 770 WELS (Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod) and ELS (Evangelical Lutheran Synod) churches. My songs are all original Christian music and I love to tell the story of my journey to faith."

"I played music professionally for 30 years on the west coast. I was an atheist until age 33, and after that sort of a new-age spiritualist. Nine years later I became a Lutheran and a Christian at the same time in 1995. Faith Lutheran Church and Pastor James Oldfield in Anchorage, Alaska were my first church and pastor. We went through a 22-week Bible study course together. Pastor Oldfield read to me out of the Bible when I asked him all of the hardest questions I could think of, and after 6 weeks of his class I was given the gift of faith by the Spirit working through God's Word. My life completely changed, of course!"

Why should you know about Chris, you ask? Because he is coming to Black River Falls on July 24. On that day Faith Lutheran Church will host Chris at Lunda Park as part of the community concert series. Come join us. Here is the information again:

When: Tuesday, July 24 @ 7 p.m.
Where: Lunda Park, Black River Falls
